48th Annual Membership Meeting

“Your Money, Your Choice, Your Credit Union” is the theme for this year’s Annual Membership Meeting to be held Saturday, March 6th at Romy’s Holiday Inn, Kelly Lake.

The need for “choice” is what gave birth to the credit union movement, as an alternative to other for-profit financial institutions. As not-for-profit financial cooperatives credit unions work for their members. Basically: we work for you! Instead of charging higher fees to keep stockholders satisfied and paying salaries for a board of directors, we work for you. Better rates, lower fees and personal service makes credit unions the premier choice in the financial world. This year’s Annual Membership Meeting is your opportunity to help show the “credit union difference”, why not “choose” to go? The dinner starts at 7:00 p.m. with *election and meeting to follow. Dinner tickets go on sale February 1st.

Entertainment for the evening will be local celebrity: Tom Zalaski! Having lived in front of cameras, microphones, crowds, at podiums and on stages for more than 30 years, Tom shares some words of wisdom and many hilarious incidents.

So mark your calendar for this wonderful evening of good food, fun entertainment and even a chance to win a great door prize.
